BCSC will not be liable for any damages, losses or expenses as a result of any person's reliance upon the information contained in the Scholarship Book (student version).

Introductory Information

This Scholarship Book (student version) contains descriptions of all scholarships currently administered by the Baraboo Community Scholarship Corporation (BCSC). Only one application form is necessary to be considered for any or all of these scholarships. Application forms are available at the Baraboo High School guidance office or through the media center computer. High school transcripts are available in the high school guidance office.

The entire Scholarship Book (student version) is available on line at:

<http://www.barabooscholarships.com>

The application, references, and transcripts must be returned to BCSC by Monday, March 1, 2010 or left in the High School Guidance drop box by Monday, March 1, 2010. Applications postmarked or left in the High School Guidance drop box later than March 1, 2010 will not be considered for scholarships. The address for sending the application materials is

Baraboo Community Scholarship Corporation
PO Box 380
Baraboo WI 53913-0380

The following pages list the general criteria that each donor specified for consideration for the pertinent scholarship. If a number is omitted in a specific scholarship, the criterion does not apply. For example, if number (5) is omitted from the list of criteria, that means (5) Class percent is not a consideration for that scholarship.

Be sure to read each item on each page carefully, because every scholarship is different. You may not qualify for one, but may qualify for another. Be sure to apply for any scholarships for which you qualify.

Dave Hedgepath, a former assistant principal at BHS, was a man of conviction, dedication and faith, and he managed to impact a number of communities, both inside and outside the school walls. Dave was a coach and leader within the school. He was instrumental in creating the IGNITE group at the high school. IGNITE is an organization for young Christian students to join and share support and ideas for building a stronger community. Dave was always willing to be there for support, and he allowed students to become stronger Christian leaders because of his efforts.

Dave also had a passion for the overall school environment, and he worked tirelessly to make the high school a better place for all students, always brightening up the pep rallies and creating programs to help students adjust to high school life. One particular area that Dave was especially fond of was the recognition of those students who showed the dedication and hard work necessary to maintain perfect attendance throughout their high school careers. Although these students often go unnoticed, Dave Hedgepath realized the importance of this accomplishment and he always made sure to give these students special recognition of the end of the year assembly.

Dave was stricken with cancer at far too young an age, but we still see the results of his efforts at BHS. To honor his dedication and faith, two scholarships have been established.

Chris was a wonderful person inside and out. He was only on this earth for a very short time, but he made the most of his time here. He has touched so many people and has inspired people to help others. That was Chris! He always had a smile for you and definitely would be there to pick you up when you were down, support you in a difficult decision, or encourage you to reach further and do more than you thought you could. He loved nothing more than to spend time with his family and friends. His family were his friends. Cross country and band were where he excelled and really found himself. Not that he was the fastest runner or played the number one chair, but the glow inside Chris radiated when he was doing one of these two things. Chris will always be loved and never forgotten. When Chris was born, he came into this world crying, but he lived his life in such a way that when he left this world, the world cried. Thank you Chris! You are amazing!

Gerald Scott taught Biology at Baraboo Senior High School for 30 years, from 1941-1971. During this time he developed the point system to encourage his students to actively enjoy the out-of-doors. Mr. Scott thoroughly enjoyed his students as evidenced by his participation as an advisor for the Foreign Student Program, Hi-Y and other extra curricular activities.

Gerald was married to Gladys Scott for more than 50 years. The Scotts believed in self-sufficiency. Gerald and his family built a summer cabin in northern Wisconsin, built their house on Crawford Street, helped build one son's house outside of Madison, and built a Cascade sailboat (The Release) that the family sailed for several years on Lake Michigan and Green Bay. In retirement, the Scotts participated in numerous elderhostels in the United States and Canada and traveled to Europe. Gerald had a true love of life and stayed active by gardening, including his prized dahlias and raspberries. The Scott House at the International Crane Foundation is named after this generous couple who prepared countless dinners for visiting dignitaries.
